Fumiko Suain Chaniel, beloved mother, grandmother, wife, and friend, passed away peacefully on March 25, 2024, at the age of 59. Born on July 28, 1964, in Micronesia to her loving parents Yesuo Suwain and Yukie Atek, Fumiko touched the lives of all who knew her with her warmth, kindness, and strength.

Fumiko found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She had a passion for Christian music that filled her heart with peace and solace. Her love for the outdoors led her to enjoy long walks and regular exercise, embracing the beauty of nature around her. Fumiko was also a skilled seamstress, finding creative expression and satisfaction in the art of sewing.

Above all, Fumiko cherished her family. She is survived by her loving husband Ignacio Chaniel, with whom she shared countless precious moments and unwavering love.
