“ Prayers of peace and comfort to this sweet family. Gary was one of a kind! Lots of great memories with Gary. The ones that stand out the most was his laugh, those overalls he wore and shooting basketball. God bless and keep you in this difficult time. Love you all.

“ I know that Gary will be missed by all who ever crossed his path. I never heard him say a bad word about anyone. Always had a chuckle and a smile. My condolences to the family. I really used to enjoy helping him with the Jerseys at the Expo and always felt good when he had me show one for him when he was getting ready with another. Memories I will always cherish.

So Sorry,
James Atchley

“ Bobby and Betty Bob, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Gary. Your whole family has meant so much to me since the loss of my father. Gary has been helpful in many ways. I saw him the last time I was in town in the grocery store and as usual, he was grinning ear to ear with that big smile of his. I will see you soon, LuAnn
