“ Ginger I was so shocked to see this morning that you lost your mom. I know the pain that you are feeling. I know that you will always miss her but it will give you comfort to know that she will be watching over her family now. Please know that I send you my deepest sympathies and I will pray for you and your family.

“ Our hearts and prayers are with you all. May it bring you peace to know she is now with her angels around her, and the great love of our Almighty god. She has no more pain in body or at heart for she is now in a great paradise with nothing but love all around her. She will be watching over all of you- her family which she loved so much. In the arms of our Heavenly Father we release her soul. AMEN

“ *To Gaynelle's Family:
Gaynelle and I were friends for many many years. We were in school together, spent time in each other's home, planned and held parties together. She was one of a kind, and will be missed. Please accept my sympathy and prayers as you deal with the loss of your wife, mom and grandmom.*
