

George McCaleb

August 15, 1944 - June 24, 2023

George A. McCaleb, 78, of Corsicana passed from this life Saturday morning June 24, 2023, at The Village at Heritage Oaks. He was born August 15, 1944, in Corsicana, Tx to Ruby and George McCaleb Sr.

He was most happy when he had his sports on, whether it was in person, on tv or by a crank radio. If you had the privilege of knowing George, you knew he was the biggest Texas Longhorns fan all while keeping the Corsicana Tigers close to his heart. And let's not forget his love for the Dallas Cowboys and the Texas Rangers. He loved music, DANCING, and singing. You may have had him sing happy birthday to you over the years at Old Mexican Inn Restaurant; and if that is true, please know he enjoyed every single moment of helping make your day special! He was a real social butterfly and enjoyed dinner with friends as long as it revolved around some kind of sport.

George is preceded in death by his parents Ruby and George McCaleb Sr and sister Virginia Wiese.

He is survived by his many Old Mexican Inn family members, his brother, and his nephews Michael McCaleb and Kevin McCaleb and great-nieces and nephews.

The visitation will be Sunday, July 2, 2023, from 1:00-5:00 pm at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. The Graveside Service will be Monday, July 3, 2023, at 10:00 am at Oakwood Cemetery.

The family would love for anyone to feel free to wear a Texas Longhorns shirt or burnt orange to the service.

“ Old Aggie George was always kind and as many have said, He always had a smile on his face. That is until I said, "Gig Em Aggies! One, Two, Three. That would get him rowed up. He was a big Texas Longhorn fan. I would say Gig Em Aggies just to get him started. I will miss him .Sincerely, Steve Shwarts
