

George W. Wynn

October 9, 1943 - February 22, 2024

George W. Wynn, born in Velasco, Texas on October 9, 1943, to parents George and Martha Wynn, peacefully passed away on February 22, 2024, in Corsicana, Texas.

George led a fulfilling life marked by dedication and service. After graduating from high school, he answered the call to serve his country by joining the Navy. Following his military service, George embarked on a career with Northrop Grumman, where he contributed his talents to building airplanes.

In addition to his professional endeavors, George found joy in various hobbies and interests. He was an avid fisherman and cherished moments spent by the water. George also enjoyed friendly competition, whether it be through a game of pool, bowling with friends, or playing solitaire in quiet moments of reflection. His love for his dogs was evident, but it paled in comparison to the adoration he held for his daughter Rene and his grandchildren as well as his great grandchildren.

George is preceded in death by his beloved wife and his parents. He leaves behind a legacy of love and fond memories cherished by his daughter Rene Burnett, grandchildren Courtney Ferguson, David Kuykendall, Katelyn Kuykendall, great-grandchildren Jayden Brown, Jeslynn Brown, and Jensen Reyes.

Cremation arrangements are under the compassionate care of Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. As we mourn George's passing, let us celebrate the life of a hardworking man who touched the hearts of many and whose memory will forever be cherished by those who knew and loved him.
