“ My thoughts are with you in your time of loss. I remember you and Glen fondly and have heard about you both from friends in Corsicana. He was one of the nicest business people I had the pleasure of working with in the Real Estate business. Take care of yourself, my best, Peggy Watts Weiss

“ Susan - We wanted to let you know that we're thinking of you and your family during this difficult time. Losing a parent or sibling is not easy, as we all know. Take care of yourself, and remember what it says in Psalms 30 - -tears come in the night, but joy comes in the morning. Thinking of you, Marinelle and Randy

“ Mr. Biggers was a patient of mine shortly after the death of his son, Brian. As he was struggling to deal with the loss of his son, he touched my heart in a special way. We often acknowledge a mother's loss, but a father's grief is just as deep and they have to try to put on a brave front for the rest of the family. I've always believed that if you can touch just one person as you journey through life, you have accomplished something worthwhile. Mr. Biggers did just that. Mrs. Biggers and family, please know my prayers are with you. A good man has gone to his reward. What a wonderful time he is probably having with Brian right now. God Bless you.

“ I know this is a hard time and it is never easy to let someone you love go. As long as you live, he will be there in your heart. A story you hear, a joke, a comment someone says that you know how he would have responded too, and countless other things will always make you think of him, and love him... and miss him too. Although I didn't know Mr. Biggers well, I feel like I do from hearing stories Gayle and Glenn have told us about him. He made quite an impact on him family and his friends. You all are in our prayers.
