“ I am in shock to learn of Glenn passing away. I am offering up prayers for all of you during this difficult time. May God just wrap His loving arms around each of you and may you feel His presence in a mighty way now and in the days to come. May He give to each of you that "peace that passes all understanding" as only He can give.

It was so good to see you at this funeral! I want you to know that I don't believe you could have summed up my dad's life in a better way! This video is truly beautiful, it's one in a million! And thank you so much for including me, I haven't seen those pictures in years. And I greatly appreciate that y'all made a disc for me. I truly couldn't ask for a better gift! God bless!

“ Glenn was a very special person, I will always remember our friendship. He was always there when a friend needed help. When we moved he was there for us. But most of all I remember the wonderful "bear hugs" he would give. He was there at the funeral when my Dad passed away, and it meant the world to both my mom and me. His hugs helped us through. I will always remember his smile. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Love to you, Brenda Giles King.

“ The shock of loosing you is almost unbearable at times. I find myself staring aimlessly into space and then frantically screaming and crying out loud in disbelief that you are gone. The only thing that calms me is knowing that even though I can't see you as I did before, I feel your love all around me.

Glenn you were much more than an Uncle to me, you were also my dear friend. I never doubted your love for me and always knew if I truly needed you, you would find a way to be by my side. I don't know what I ever did to deserve your unconditional love but I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

I will miss our silly text messages back and forth, our mini get aways, our American Idol bets, enjoying some yummy crispy fish/oysters, sipping on a good margarita, you showing up at my work to take me to lunch, getting into some crazy conversation about passing gas and laughing uncontrollably, listening to you go on about sports even though I had no idea what you were talking about, listening to your passion about the military, politics, your excitement about the open carry gun law and cracking up when you would playfully pick on my sweet momma. Most of all I am going to miss the child like innocence you gave me when your wrapped those big bear claw arms around me.

Some might remember you as a tough, hardheaded Beaird boy but I will remember a tender hearted man that cared deeply for his family! Don't get me wrong, I know you could be tough and hardheaded but for those who got to see your see your tender side, they got to know the real Glenn Beaird.

Thank you for the lifetime of memories and love. I pray that your spirit walks in peace along those of your dear mother, father, brother, uncles, aunts and cousins.

All my love,

Tammie

“ Tomorrow, we will say goodbye to one of my dearest friends. Although we were divorced many years ago, he has remained a very good friend to my sister & I. This is an unusual situation for sure, and it could never have happened without his dear sweet wife, Pat Beard. You are one of a kind, Pat. Joyce and I send you our love & prayers, hoping that in some small way it may help you know others wish you strength and peace in these difficult times. You have our deepest sympathy, with sincere hope that our friendship will continue on for many years. You are more like family to Joyce & I than words can explain. Your friendship, support & encouragement throughout the years has meant the world to us & no words can express our gratitude to you.

We are so glad to have met Glenn. He was such a fun loving and sweet person. I will never forget him coming to our house to not only watch the tamale-making process one Christmas, but joined in and made a few tamales himself! He was a wonderful little brother to his big sister Mary and brother Kenneth, and a marvelous uncle to Tammie and Beth. We shall all miss his smile and kind heart. Our prayers for his family. We were blessed to enjoy his spirit on this earth. Love you Mary Gragg and Tammie Varela.

“ Glenn had a tender, loving heart. He felt others pain and grief. All he every wanted was for the family to love one another and be united. He sacrificed his own health to take care of his brother. I know he would do it all over again. Sometimes he would get angry because he could not stop the suffering of those he loved. May his death touch many and hearts become as huge as his. He will be dearly missed. Love you Glenn Beard.

Glenn was a man who would dance till he died. He never gave up through all his illness. The way he kept dancing (live life to the fullest), you would never know how seriously ill he was. There are not enough words to describe his courage and the enormous love in his heart for his family. Family meant everything to him. Family, please always remember the love he had and has for each and everyone of you. Share in his love.

“ My father was the hardest working man I've ever met and dedicated himself wholeheartedly to every member of his family! I remember as a young child my dad getting up in the middle of the night to make deliveries until the crack of dawn just to come home and rush off to his full time job at Hughes Tools. He always did what it took to get the job done. In addition to all that work he not only coached my baseball team for many years but practiced with me every day, rain or shine, so I could be the best I could be. I can only dream to have half the work ethic that man had! Even though we had our ups and downs, I am so proud to be his daughter! As I got older we developed a beautiful friendship and even though we didn't always see eye to eye, we were the best of friends. Nothing compares to the love and protection I received from my daddy! Even though he is with God, I know he will always be looking out for me just as he always has. He never gave up! On me, on life, on anything! He always gave it all he had and quitting was never an option. My heart and all of my love goes out to the Greatest Man I've ever known. Rest in peace daddy!

Angela - my heart breaks for you as memories just keep flooding in of your life. Your Dad burst with pride on your accomplishments & wept with us for the overwhelming trials that you have had to endure at such a young age. You continue to raise your youngest alone, & Katie has grown to have a beautiful heart (like yours). You are one of the strongest people I will ever know. I will always love you. - Mom
As you well know, Joyce will always love you like a Mom & as well, our hearts are eased to know Pat loves you & is grieving with you. Our heart & prayers go out to all of his family & especially to you & Pat for comfort, peace, & strength. We love you & Pat & are trying to remember, there are no tears in heaven.

Elna Beaird - August 06, 2015 at 05:24 PM

Mom,

I appreciate all the kind words you had to say to me. But there's something I want you to know, you talk about how your heart breaks for me and how your heart and prayers go out to Pat and I for comfort, peace and strength. It's so important to me that you don't discount your own feelings. I know you're hurting but I also know you well enough to know you're putting up a brave front for me. You've been here for me through my whole life, even when we don't see eye to eye and you must know that I am here for you too. My heart and prayers also go out to you, I know you suffered a great loss as well. And I've never doubted Joyce's love for me and my heart goes out to her as well. Even though my heart breaks for Dad, I'm incredibly lucky to have two wonderful moms! There is nothing I wouldn't do for either of you and I love you both more than words can say!

“ I met Glenn in 2005 when I was hired by the City of Carrollton. Glenn oversaw the mowing crews. Or as he would say with his sweet southern accent... 'mowin' operations! Glenn came to me one day to let me know my personal truck, a 2003 F-150 with way to many miles on it, had the passenger side rear headlight out. I thanked him and assured him, I would get it repaired. A week or two went by and I hadn't given the rear headlight another thought. Glenn came to me again and offered to install the bulb if I would purchase it and bring it to work. I agreed to do so...! Several more weeks went by and Glenn had bought a 2 pack of bulbs and his tools, and installed the bulb one hot afternoon after work! It was a 2 pack, so he gave the spare to me and asked me to put it in the glove box; so we would have it handy the next time he needed to change out another one of my bulbs! (Followed by one of those sweet caring winks that he would offer up!). My memory of sweet Glenn, is that if a kind loving man who loved helping others, he loved his bike, his family and his sweet dogs (not in the listed order !). He always offered a warm hug, a sweet or sassy wink and a hearty laugh and smile! - Lorri D.
