“ Dear Otto, Terry, Doug and the rest of the Zoch family,

Words cannot express the sadness our family shares at the loss of Gloria. I remember Gloria as one of the strongest, most graceful women I have had the pleasure to know. It seems you have had more than your share of heartache. God must see you as strong individuals for your family has had such burdens to bare. I pray you will take comfort in knowing she is no longer suffering. We have grown apart over the years but we still love each of you very much and will be praying for you as you walk this path of sorrow. May God's Love surround you and your family with the Peace that passes understanding. May his strength be yours in this your hour of need.

We Love You All. Glory will be missed in this world.
