“ Raymond Walter and Cindy, Just wanted to tell you guys that we are thinking of you at this tough time. Your mom was a special lady. She always made me feel at home when at was at your house. Ya'll are very lucky to have a Godly mom, who loved you no matter what you were going through. I know you will miss her, but just follow her example. We love ya, Scott and Tammy Montgomery.

“ My prayers are with Gracies family. She was a wonderful lady and a personal friend. The last time we sang together we both cried because we knew it would be the last here on earth. I know once again in Heaven we will sing together with the Awesome voices that God will give us. I love you and will miss you until we meet again.

“ May you find the courage to face tomorrow in the love that surrounds you today. At this time of sorrow may these truths sustain you.....your loved one will always be as close as a memory and the God of all comfort is always as close as a prayer. It will be the little things that you will remember the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memory of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5
