

Greg Caton

November 15, 1954 - September 28, 2017

Greg Caton was born on November 11, 1954 in Corsicana, Texas. He passed away on September 28 at Baylor Hospital in Dallas after a short but hard fought battle.

He is survived by his wife of 28 years, Catherine; son Benjamin and daughters Elizabeth and Camryn. He is also survived by his sister Sandra Whitener and Eddy; sister's in law Patty Anne Canterbury and Joe, Trudy Coan and Frank and Scotty Moses and Phillip.

He is also survived by his nieces and nephews Ronnie (Tooter) Owens and Kim; Dustin Whitener and Jessica; Joe Canterbury and Christine; Embry Canterbury and Robyn; Tim Canterbury and Amy; Frank Coan and Jill; Scott Moses and Amanda; John Moses and Angela. He is also survived by nieces Rachel Gregory and Tom; Mary Love Garverick and Jamie; Katy Walker and Mark and Tricia Moses and Jack. He is also survived by a number of great nephews and nieces.

He was preceded in death by his father Thomas Benjamin Caton, Jr. and his mother Helen Marie Tally Caton.

Greg loved life and he loved people. He was a musician who loved every type of music. He was always drumming whether it was on drums, pots and pans or the steering wheel of his car. There was always a drumbeat in his head. He was also an avid knife collector. But the thing Greg loved most was his family. His children may not have had him as long as they wanted, but they had the best there was. They were his life and they knew it.

His sense of humor was known far and wide. He could make the driest person laugh and could sell ice to an Eskimo. Greg worked hard, played hard and loved hard. The world will not be as bright without him in it. He also loved his job at Dave Carter. Thank you for all your support during these last two weeks and all the years before. He considered them family too.

Honorary pall bearers will be: Jim Wadle, Jimmy Pond, Kevin Sparks, Tommy Pryor, Joey Richards, Kelly Kerr, Mark Joyner, Gary Oliphant, Tommy Oliphant, Howard Oliphant, Randy Blue, Eddy Whitner and Dennis Allred. These men are old friends, new friends and family. They were with Greg at the end and he loved them all dearly

“ Greg truly loved his family, he was so proud when Ben started playing football, Greg was there most everyday for football practice starting at Collins and carrying on into High School Football he was at every practice as was I we would watch our guys practice, then at the games he was there as close to the field as he could get with Catherine and the girls in the stands. I'm sure he was at everything those girls did too, but it was at after school Football where I truly got to see the real Greg, Proud Daddy Bear.

“ Greg was a special person, one that you crossed paths with one in a life time. We grew up together, and we shared a love for music. We spent so much time in that small room at his moms (the garage) doing what he called, "sharping our skills". Through the years we played every honkytonk, club, and private parties I can't even remember them all. I will miss his funny remarks, his friendships and those special conversations we shared. Love you Pearl. You rest high on that mountain. You will be forever be in my memories.

“ I miss you so much already. Greg was more than a co-worker. He was my friend. He always made me laugh, even when you were getting on my nerves. Greg never met a stranger, his laugh was contagious. Greg had a great sense of humor, he was the life of the party. We have lost a great guy, way to soon.
To your children, Your dad loved you dearly. He was so proud of all of you.
To Catherine,..Greg told me you were his angel. May he rest in peace.

“ I will miss you so much Greg. You were a mentor, a supporter, a true friend... you were like a family member to me. We would argue, cuss at each other, work, vent, joke around, talk about life and about family, about knives, cars, candy.. I loved you because you always kept it real. I loved you, because you always guided me in the right direction. You helped me learn so much about work. I loved you because you and Kelly helped me when I had trouble finding a reliable car. Now I love my Camry! I loved you because you always had a smile on your face. I will miss you so much. It hurts so much that you are gone. By the way Greg, I got to meet your lovely family at the hospital. I met your sweet wife Catherine, your son Ben, your oldest daughter Beth, and your sweet lil daughter Camryn. Even though it broke my heart to see them suffering, I know they will be okay by the way that they supporting each other. Thank you for all that you did. I will be looking for you when I make it to Heaven.

“ To the Caton family,
We are so sorry to learn of Mr. Caton's passing. Though we didn't know him personally we know his daughter, Camryn, very well. She has been a treasured friend to our granddaughter, Kennedie, since kindergarten. We hurt , too, because we love Camryn so much. She has been Ken's support when Ken needed it and has been her angel through thick and thin. Our prayers will continue in the days, weeks, months ahead that God will hold you all in His loving arms and give you the comfort and peace you will need to go on, adapting to a life without him here on earth. We hold to the promise of reuniting with him one day when the family circle will indeed be unbroken forever more. Thank You, Lord, for this wonderful husband and father, whose influence will live on in his family.

“ I have known Greg since grade school. We rode bikes together when we were at Travis. In high school he rode with me many mornings to school. We were members of Howard Oliphant's "Diamond Brand Boys" and worked many days together. He always made doing things fun in work and play. I was always amazed how well he played the drums and loved to listen to him. When listened to one song every morning that we rode together in high school. That song was Stairway to Heaven. You have now made that journey my friend. You will be missed Caveman.

“ Greg looks so much like his dad Junior. I loved Junior and Helen. They were the sweetest people. I remember how shy he seemed whenever Larry and I would go over to visit. He wasn't shy at all however when he picked up a drum stick. He was so musically talented. I wish I could have heard him play more. God Bless you Greg and Rest In Peace. Prayers for your family.
