“ Elizabeth,
I know that you will miss your dad emencely. I miss Bill in the worst way. Sometime when you are over in Dawson, stop by and visit. I have had a BCD defibulator put in and I am about to go on dialylis. My kidneys are going too.
Again Elizabeth and Oscar I am truly sorry for your loss.

“ I am trully sorry for your loss...Mr. Farmer was next door to my Mother's room at Heritage Oaks and I would visit him when I came to check on Mother....Mr. Farmer knew my Dad from the old days...My Dad is now at Heritage Oaks...and as we were walking down the hallway several months ago...He looked up and recognized Daddy and said" Hey Hoss! " How are you doin'!... "Hey Hoss" was my Dad's nick name while he lived in Purdon... Sorry for your loss..Jim and Sue “ Elizabeth, I am so sorry to read about your Dad's passing, but know that he is rejoicing in our Lord and Savior's presence. He is with your Mom and all the ones who have gone on before him and they will be looking down on you as your Guardian Angels. When you look in the nighttime sky, and see a shining new star, remember that is your dad....

GOd Bless you

“ My Dear elizabeth,
I know you will miss the greatest Man that was ever in your life. He was also the greatest FireMan I ever knew.
Sorry I could not be there but I have some critical itens at the present time. If you are ever in Dawson stop by and see me.

“ Elizabeth & Family,

I am so sorry to hear of your dads death. Your parents were both very special folks & I always enjoyed taking care of both of them when they were patients at the clinic. We had lots of laughs together. I find comfort in knowing they are both together again. My thoughts & prayers are with each of you.

*Sincerely,
Sue Martin*

“ Dear Elizabeth,
I know you will miss your buddy, your Father and your friend.
I know that I miss Bill terribly.
If you are ever over here in Dawson stop by. I am not in good health or I would be there with you.
Your father was the best fireman Purdon ever had. Fairwell good friend.

“ When I visited Mother before she died I would take Mr. Farmer a glass of the sugar-free punch from the nurses station. He always seemed to enjoy it, and it was my pleasure to be of service. I know he and Mother are visiting in Heaven. Just wanted to let you know I am thinking of him and your family. Your friend in Jesus, Kay.

“ We will always remember Guy Farmer for his smile and sense of humor when Les moved to Nacadoches to go to College. Les was Best Man at our Wedding Ceremony. Guy always had kind words each time we met. We will miss Guy and ask that God be with you at this time.
