“ Dear Mac,

Over the past 15 years that I've known you through your work with United Built, I've known you as a very honest, respectful and kind Gentleman. But over this past year, I've come to know much more about you as a man with courage and determination beyond belief as you quietly fought your heroic battle. I feel honored that you trusted me enough to share with me a glimpse into what you were battling, although not one time did you ever complain or express it as being a battle. Anytime I asked you how your were doing, you would say "Great, every day is Great". I asked how you stayed so positive and you would tell me it was the only way you could be for your family. You counted every day as a blessing; you told me that. Mac, I know you will be missed by everyone that knew you. As for me, I will miss you, your kindness, and positive attitude. We could all learn a lot from you. May God take you in his arms in Heaven, and may God bless your family through this very difficult time. Liz Barrow.

“ Mac, your spirit will live on forever! I met you 20 years ago and I thought to myself now that's a cowboy! You were stern but yet culpable! You were intentional and honest. You were an extremely detail oriented person and you took no shortcuts. I am grateful to have called you not only my friend but brother in Christ. You fought the good fight my brother!! I love you and I know that you're in a better place and one day soon we will see each other again. To the family and friends; remember that a sunset on earth is a SONrise in heaven. I pray God's comfort, peace, and healing over each of you!

Life is so precious. We never know how long the Lord will give us, here on earth. Little Jack will be truly missed every second of every minute. He was a giant of a man.... soft spoken but mighty in his walk. He loved his wife, children, and his family beyond words. Know that we (his family) have been inspired by his courageous fight and steadfast determination in everything he did throughout his life. He is loved, and he will be missed.
