“ This breaks my heart and saddens me so. I know this precious is now in a better place in Heaven and is happy and laughing and playing again. God did not take this innocent child but he has a place for her. I pray he heals this families hearts and eases their pain. I have three children and can only imagine their pain, I would be devastated. God bless you all.

“ To the Family of Little Hanna:

We were saddened by the tragic story of little Hanna's passing. We would like to offer our deepest sympathy to the family. Hanna's story, as evidenced by the many tributes, has touched so many lives. With tributes and prayers from as far away as Europe back to Texas we can only add ours to them. I read Hanna wanted to be a Princess. She truly looked like a little Princess in her picture.

Words from strangers or even friends cannot lessen your pain or ease your heartache. But we can say a prayer that God will carry you in the days ahead and lift you up during the times you feel you cannot go on. We cannot fathom the depth of sorrow you are going through but please know that prayers are being said right now for each of you. God will not let you go through this alone for His love is so great he will be by your side. And He will be with you through the many, many people that will come your way to offer their comfort.

May the Lord Our God Bless you

“ My condolences go out to the Mack family in this time of need. My heart aches for each and everyone of you. I being a mother of a 1yr old little girl cried when I heard of this tragedy. Without me knowing any of the Mack family I still am quite concerned. We all know that little Hanna is watching over her mommy and her sisters each and every day. She is safe from anymore harm now and resting in God's arms. May God be with you and comfort you in this time of need. You are in my prayers. May you find justice in all of this.

“ Our deep sympathy we send to you and your family during this time of pain and sorrow that you're going through. Sadly, sometimes the life of our loved ones suddenly ends and this is when we need to depend on Almighty God for his strength (John 11:25) and draw comfort from his loving promise to help cope daily with such a tremendous loss. Also, dear friends are there to give needed support. Dana, please remember that the thoughts of many are with you.

“ I did not know Hanna or her family but her death has deeply troubled me. I feel like I am intruding into a private matter by adding comments into this forum, but I think it is worth it to get the word out that there is a memorial fund in Hanna's name. Please contribute so her name will live forever and that we can end crimes against children. Donations can be made at any Prosperity Bank or by sending a check or money order to:

*The Hanna Mack Memorial Fund
P.O. Box 287
Blooming Grove, Tz 76626*

Please forgive the intrusion, but I think it is so important to make sure Hanna's name lives forever and that we never forget her. My heart goes out to her entire family and I am trying to raise funds for her memorial.

“ I had the special blessing of teaching your daughter on Wed. nights at First Baptist Church. I know that it is no surprise to you that she was a precious little girl. She was very well behaved. She had the sweetest smile. She enjoyed music time and she listened attentively to the stories of Jesus. I really missed her when she quit coming. I found that you'll had moved.

I am so sorry for you and your little girls and the entire family. You all are in my prayers daily. I can't get Hannah off my mind and I know you can't get through this without the prayers and support of others. My six year old grandson asked me to pray for Hannah. I said "Baby, She is okay now. She is with Jesus and no one can hurt her again." That brings me comfort. I hope it brings some comfort to you and your family as well.

Karen - September 10, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ To the Family and Friends of little Hanna,
I cannot imagine the pain y'all are facing right now, and I am extremely sorry for all the pain and heartache you are facing now, and for a long time to come.
But please hear this: God did NOT NEED another angel, so He took Hanna...that is so wrong to believe that way. I do believe she is wrapped in the loving arms of Jesus at this moment, and that she's having a great time, and knows more love and happiness than any of us could ever experience here on this earth!
Angels are created beings, and were at no time human. As for why God permits horrible things like this to happen, we'll never know this side of Heaven. But I am assured of this one thing: when Hanna was going through the unspeakable things she was probably subjected to, Jesus was weeping and broken hearted. We learn in the Bible how much Jesus loved children...they are very important to Him, and this person who harmed her will face eternal consequences for their actions. That probably brings you no comfort, but Jesus is willing to be your comforter, if you'll allow Him to. He is also big enough to take your anger, because He understands we are only human and don't know what goes on in the battles of the spiritual realm that we can't see. Allow Jesus to comfort you. Allow Him to send his people to cry with you, hold you, and listen to you. These people are "Jesus with skin on"...a tangible way for you to see Him.
Once again, I am sorry for your pain and loss.
Sincerely,
A Broken Hearted Christian Citizen

“ As I let the tears roll down my face,
I can't bring myself to wipe them away.
I have a child same age as you,
If it were her don't know what I'd do.
Doesn't matter, I think the pains the same, though I don't KNOW you, only your name!
But the smile on your face..so innocent and sweet,I hope and pray they've find the creep.
What could he want with just a baby so small?
There are plenty of women WILLING after all.
Go be with the Lord little angel so sweet,
Tell the Yeshua(Jesus) hello for me as you two greet.

To the Mother of Hanna...I will not stop praying for you.

“ My prayers go out to the intire family of Hanna Mack.

*She shared with us with her style and grace,
so lovely, slim with smiling face.*

Her hair was golden, her smile was warm, to see her was to know her charm.

*She loved her family most of all,
but shared herself with all who called,
and had no prejudice, or hate -
but accepted life just on her faith.*

*Her life was short but full of love,
for family, home and God above.
So short a time with us it seems,
no time to really fill her dreams.*

*But sometimes God has other plans,
that's different from we mortal man.
He uses us to fill his needs,
to do his work, to sow his seeds.*

*And so our Hanna's gone away,
a star in Heaven some would say.
Memories of her are wonderful you see,
a perfect vision of life that's free.*
