

Harold Prater

December 28, 1934 - June 11, 2017

Harold Wayne Prater Sr., of Corsicana, Texas, passed away at his home on Sunday Afternoon, June 11, 2017 at the age of 82. He was born in Frost, Texas on December 28, 1934 to Woodrow Wilson Prater and Frenchie Denn Prater. Harold graduated from Corsicana High School in 1952. For 58 years he owned Prater Builders in Corsicana / Navarro County building homes. He loved his calling in life to help those reach their goals of having their 'dream home', and in doing so making a lot of longtime friends and repeat customers. Harold enjoyed the outdoors. Fishing for crappie and hunting turkey and deer with his family and friends was his way of relaxing and enjoying God's creation. He also enjoyed traveling with one of his favorite destinations being the Texas Hill Country. And then there is the Dallas Cowboys, Texas Longhorns and Corsicana Tigers who he supported year after year and would listen to their games at home or on hunting trips.

Harold will always be remembered by his family as our great leader, because he was the most fair and honest man we ever knew.

He is preceded in death by his parents. Survivors include his wife Vicky Prater of 28 ½ years. Children; Diane Prater Davis and husband Alex and Hal Prater and wife Leslie. Grandchildren; Brooke Dalton, Wil Prater and Brannon Ferguson. Great grandchildren; Dylan, Max and Hayden. He is also survived by a step-son Trey Hendrick. Brother; Jimmy Prater and wife Judi and a nephew Ken Prater. Harold is also survived by numerous extended family members and friends.

Visitation with Harold's family will be Tuesday evening at Griffin – Roughton Funeral Home from 5–7pm. Funeral services will be Wednesday, June 14, 2017 at 2pm in the Chapel at Griffin – Roughton Funeral Home with Edwin Sours officiating. Burial will follow at Resthaven Memorial Park with pallbearers being Sonny Prater, Lee Montgomery, Bill Barber, Jimmy Rash, Clint Sutton, C.R. Sutton and Ray Cobb.

“ I woke the boys up this morning singing the song you used to wake my brother and I up with every Thursday morning. "Oh what a beautiful morning...Oh what a beautiful day. I've got a wonderful feeling. Everything's going my way". They knew that was your song to us and they smiled when they woke up. We love you. I miss you already. I see you in my boys though. I know you are still with us. Rest is peace... It is a beautiful morning.

I met Harold late in his life and wish I could have known him longer. He was a kind, smart gentleman. He and Vicky were blessed to have found each other. I enjoyed being in their home because with Harold, Vicky, Bucky and Jagger you could always feel the love in that home.

*Harold Prater defined what a Texas gentleman was and stood for throughout his life. His legacy will live on through his children and his children's children. If you were fortunate enough to have had Harold Prater cross your path in life you came away with knowing a fine man who cared for all who crossed his path. We are all blessed to have known Harold Prater. Thank you Prater family for sharing him with us.
Sincerely, Terry Fauble*
