“ My wife and I were deeply saddened to hear of Harry's passing. He was a very kind and pleasant man who loved his wife dearly. He had a sharp wit and always had a funny quip or joke to tell. It was my priviledge to serve him and his wife.

“ Harry Clowe was a very special, caring person. In addition to that special trait, he was a long time fisherman partner with my father. I always enjoyed listening to the guys at Hashop's Drug Store tell their fish stories to one another. In fact, my dad took his grandchildren to Hashop's to drink cokes with Harry and Paul. What neat memories for all of us.
