“ Harvie Lee was our oldest cousin left. He was easy to love as he loved all. I am so glad we visited even by phone and I was able to tell him how proud of him we all were. He made a good life. He married a fine lady that he seemed to love more every day. He worked very hard and God was good. He put up a good fight. His children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were fortunate as all our family and friends were to have had him pass through our lives. I will surely miss knowing he is around. God Bless all.
