“ Christine was a very devoted mother, wife, and Grandmother. She would light up a room with her always sweet smile and was there for everyone who knew her.

She will be missed and her family, especially her daughter Sarah, will miss her dearly, they were almost inseperable. Sarah devoted herself to her Mother for the past 5 years and was there til the very end.

We Love you Sarah and send our utmost condolences on your loss.

“ Just wanted to express my condolences.Christine was a very special lady.She was always so nice to me & I will miss her very much.She was such a giving person & would give the shirt off her back,if she knew you wanted or needed it.She would call me when she knew I was sick,asking if I needed anything and say ,“I’ll send Sarah right over if you need anything”.She was always smiling & kidding around with everyone she met.Each time I talked to her on the phone her last words would be “I Love You”. Those were my last words to her.She will be greatly missed. Sarah call me if you need anything.Keeping you & the whole family in my thoughts & prayers.

“ There will come a day when the tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance...and your heart will begin healing itself...and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy...and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome the tears of remembrance...as a sun shower of the soul...a turning of the tide...a promise of peace. There will come a day when you will...risk loving...go on believing...and treasure the tears of remembrance. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5
