

Hazel McLauchlin

October 27, 1917 - August 3, 2016

Born October 27, 1917, Hazel McLauchlin would come to be known as a precious child, adoring sister, impeccable friend, devoted wife (since 1939), loving mother, fun-loving aunt and as “Tutsie” to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. In her 98 years, born and raised in Corsicana, she touched countless lives through her commitment to Westminster Presbyterian Church and working at the State Children’s Home, Collins Middle School, First National Bank and Majors & McLauchlin Insurance Agency. She had a contagious laugh, a penchant for party planning, a partiality to bridge games, an eye for decorating, a love for family and an unshakable foundation of faith and integrity. She was the life of any gathering not because she needed or expected such, but because she radiated a luminescent glow to which you couldn’t help but be drawn. She loved travel and the fellowship of life long friends – whether in her soiree club, literary club, or bridge club of which she was a faithful member of each for 50+ years. She is preceded in death by husband Woodrow Wilson “Bill” McLauchlin, son Rodney McLauchlin, and sisters Marie Johnson and Mary Elizabeth “Babe” Redden. Her legacy lives on through daughter Hazel Ann Irvin, daughter-in-law Janice McLauchlin, granddaughter Diane and husband Richard Rousey, granddaughter Hollie and husband Jeff Higgins, grandson Ryan McLauchlin, great grandson Hunter Case, great granddaughters Campbell and Ellyse Higgins, and other local and nation-wide extended family.
