“ One of my favorite memories is at one of Joshua's baseball games. I had mom by both hands helping her walk through the parking lot and she stop and looked at me and said Shane I'm. I said ,OK and lifted her up into my arms and carried her to the field with both of us laughing until I sat her down.
I love that Lady!!

I enjoyed getting to know Hazel through watching her grandchildren. Sometimes she would be the one picking them up! Every time I went into Walmart and she was there she always had a smile and kind words! She was an asset to that store! I too loved her hats! She will be greatly missed! My prayers go out to her family!
