“ So sad to hear about the passing of Helen. We were close friends from the fourth grade and on into High School. She was a dear friend and I will always remember the wonderful times we had growing up. Heart felt prayers to her family. Carolyn Adcock Carr

“ My sweet, precious "baby cousin". Helen was more than a cousin to me. We grew up on each side of our Papaw Murphy. Helen was raised in a loving, caring and gently cluster of Murphy's on Corbet slab. Even though other people occupy the house Helen was raised in, it was always "Home" to Helen.

Helen loved shopping on QVC and I would always tease her about her outfit... asking her "Did you get that on QVC?". She would giggle and say, "Of course". I could always count of Helen ,, even when doing projects neither of us knew anything about. Our last project (which included Larry) was transplanting plants from my flower bed to hers. Every time I look at those plants in my flower bed I think of Helen.

I loved Helen very much and am sad she is gone but I know she has a caring, loving family waiting to embrace her.

Till I see you again, Billie Van
