“ Thoughts and prayers are with you and your family regarding your grandmothers death. I have lost both of my parents over the last few years and though sad at there loss---there is not a day goes by that there memories don't bring a smile to my face. Your Grandmother is in a better place now and as I said before--remember the good times.

“ I did not know her that well but from what I have been told she was one amazing woman. Will be dearly missed. There was so much about her that reminded me of my grandmother I love several years ago. The love that she had coming from her family was amazing. She was a very special woman and I know she will be in so many peoples hearts forever. Gone but never forgotten.... My thoughts and prayers and love go out to the family during this time of need.
