“ Wendy
I can not express the sorrow that I have over the death of dear Henry. He was one of my first friends at Guardian, and will always be remembered with fondness and respect.
He is watching down from above, and will take care of those left behind that he loves so much.
Let me know if I can do anything for you.

“ Henry was a good friend to all. He will be remembered by me and David as someone who you could always talk to and trust. He always found a way to make you laugh, no matter how down you felt. Henry always thought of other people before himself. He will be truly missed by all who knew him. He left some great memories with all who knew him. May God give you all comfort in this time. You are all in our prayers.

“ To Henry a truly great friend. He was a very given person always there for you regardless of what he had going on. We will always remember the camping trips. But most of all we will remember Hank as a strong person, truthful and genuine no nonsense person.

Hank we always love you and miss you.

“ Oh, sweet Wendy! Our loss is heaven's gain! I so hope that thought helps to ease your pain. Hank probably already has the campsite set up and is ready to visit with those who went before him. Whenever you are ready to talk ...I will look forward to hearing your voice. God's peace and presence, always! Love, Sonya
