“ *I loved my Uncle Hollis.
It was always special for me to spend time with him.
I have so many happy memories.
We used to go shooting in Angeles Forest.
He taught me many of the carpentry skills I possess.
I used to love to listen to his stories, especially the ones of his growing up in Texas farm country.
I'll see you again Uncle Hollis.*

“ Uncle Hollis was one of a kind. He always had Big smile Hugs&kiss for you. A wonderful Carpenter. He would build every thing out of wood you asked for from house to Bird houses. He loved to play 42 and84. With his family. They had so much fun do it. He loved the Family reunions so he would see his cousins and all the rest of the family. Loved tell us about old times . I loved it the most. Places he work. He had a full life loved his boys and grandchildren. And Loved The Lord. We will see you again Uncle Hollis . Fly high.

“ So sorry for the Family's loss. He will be missed. I saw him everyday for the past 2 years and even before when Maxine and Toad was in there. May he rest in the arms of our Heavenly Father

“ I only knew Uncle Hollis the last 5 years....I remember when I first started working for his niece (Debbie Dillingham) He would come over at least once a week and she would help him fill his pill boxes for the week....he would always bring us a bar of candy,,,usually a Hershey bar, because of course chocolate was our favorite. He would sit and talk to us for a while and then I would tell him I had to go back in the office to work, but he would always come back, before he left, to kiss me on the cheek and tell me goodbye and the last few years I have missed that. I know he is walking around spry and happy again, so I don't say goodbye, I say, see you later Uncle Hollis and expect that kiss on the cheek!

“ uncle Hollis loved to play games. I remember seeing him play 42 with his sisters. Also he loved to travel. I remember a few trips with him myself. I was honored to be able to care for him these last few years. He was always such a blessing to my family and everyone he knew. I will miss him. Love to all the family!
