

Howard B. Coley

November 20, 1925 - September 9, 2022

Howard Coley has slipped the surly bonds of Earth and touched the face of God. At 9:15am on September 9, 2022, Howard entered his Heavenly home having lived his life to the fullest and cramming 96 years of stories, life and love into his time on Earth.

Born on November 20, 1925, in Corbet, Howard lived in the Corsicana area most of his life. After finishing high school, Howard joined the war efforts in 1943 as a paratrooper in the 101st Airborne. He participated in Operation Market Garden after Normandy invasion, spearheading the Allied liberation of Europe.

After the war, Howard worked in Saudi Arabia as part of the pipelining team that built the Trans-Arabian pipeline. He returned to Corsicana in 1950 and married the love of his life, Joyce Deming, in 1951. He raised his family in Corsicana, owning several different businesses throughout his working years. Howard was preceded in death by "his bride" Joyce, sons Charles Howard and David Edmund, and granddaughter Amy Argersinger. He is survived by daughter and son-in-law Luann (Coley) and Ray Argersinger, daughter-in-law Dawn Coley, grandchildren Sadie (Coley) and James Jordan, Jonah and Samantha Coley, and Adam and Chrissy Argersinger, and great grandson Krew David Coley.

Visitation will be Thursday, September 15th from 11-12pm at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. Graveside Funeral Service will be 1:00pm Thursday, September 15th at Oakwood Cemetery.
