“ On May 19, 2001, I remarried to a wonderful man in Biloxi, MS. I was a part of me that was sad as my parents had already passed and they were not there to bless my marriage or support me. However, Uncle Dumpy and Aunt Bea came all that way for me and I could never express how much that meant. I know they were there out of love for me and my parents. They may have been substitutes; but the best ever. We had a great time.

Of course Aunt Bea was tempted by the slots in our hotel and Uncle Dumpy said she could have one pull. She put in a quarter and pulled the one arm bandit. Lights and sirens went off and she had won $250 dollars!! They politely accepted their winnings and left the casino.

They were loved and will be missed; however, I know they made the trip and are now with my parents, and other loved ones that went before them. I find comfort in that knowledge and hope the family will too.

We love you all. Family is kept so dear to our hearts.

“ We have wonderful memories of your mom & dad and the love provided for their family and friends who were apart of their life. Their love, care, smiles, respect, and laughter will carry on from one generation to another. Thanking and praising the Lord for allowing them to share his great love for each of us and reminding us that people and relationships are our true treasures. We love you are are praying for your precious family. Love, Clyde, Rick, and Ronald Smith and family

“ Back in the 90's after moving in with daddy(Richard Freeman) we invited Uncle Dumpy and Aunt Bea up for breakfast. Robert, Daddy and I were thinking around 11:00 to 12:00. Well, about 6:00 in the morning a knock was at the front door and when I finally got up to see who was knocking, it was Uncle and Aunt standing there expecting breakfast. We laughed, loved and told stories for about 4 to 5 hours that day and my heart was so full. Oh! And I finally got the breakfast cooked.

We love and miss you. We will be seeing you again
