

Ida Blue

November 27, 1933 - July 21, 2019

Ida Dmetries Blue was called home Sunday, July 21, 2019 at the age of 85. She passed away peacefully at her home in Corsicana, with her family by her side. She was loved by many and her last days were spent surrounded by family and friends.

Ida was born on November 27, 1933 to Fred and Theries Carnell. She grew up in Corsicana and married the love of her life, M.H. Blue Jr, on November 13, 1948. The two remained in Corsicana where they raised their three children, Wesley, Randy, and Pam. Ida found joy in children; she loved spending each day with her own and watched other children in her home as well.

She also enjoyed her seasonal job at Collin Street Bakery. She worked at the bakery for over 30 years and often shared fond memories of her time spent there. In her free time, she was a talented quilter and made many beautiful quilts for her loved ones.

After their children were grown, Ida and M.H. moved to a house with land. They enjoyed the country life and spent much of their time together outside. The two could often be found sitting together on the front porch watching the birds and squirrels. If not relaxing in the swing together, Ida was helping her best friend with any job that needed to be completed whether it was painting fence or mowing the yard. Ida and M.H. were married 70 years and the love they shared was undeniable.

Ida was a devoted and loving mother and grandmother. She was very proud of her family and any chance to spend time with them was important to her. She was known as "Maw-Maw" to the many grandchildren that cherished her. Having her grandchildren visit always brought her such happiness, and the memories they have of her will never be forgotten.

She was known for her sassy, yet sweet and funny personality. She was always giving compliments and knew just how to make everyone around her feel special. She will be greatly missed by all that knew and loved her.

Ida was preceded in death by her parents, Fred and Theries Carnell; two sisters, Irma Lou Armstrong and Marquita Lawless; baby brother Leslie Carnell; and great granddaughter Tory Cantu.

She is survived by her husband M.H. Blue Jr; children, Wesley Blue and fiancé Sherry, Randy Blue and wife Janette, Pam Travis and husband Leo; 8 grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren, 4 great-great grandchildren, and many other family and friends that adored her.

Graveside service will be at Oakwood Cemetery on Wednesday, July 24, 2019 at 10:00am.

Mawmaw, It's been a year since you left us. In some ways it seems so long ago and in other ways it hurts just like It was yesterday. I miss hearing your voice and sharing stories with you and miss seeing you and Pawpaw together.

We've done our best to take care of Pawpaw and the Rest of the family.

We miss you and love you more than I could ever type in a million of these memos. Take care of all us and watch over us and keep us safe. I love you, Bodie.

Mawmaw, It's been two long years since you received your wings. I miss you as much now as I did the first day. I miss hearing your voice and hearing the stories and just everything about you when we would visit. Most of all I still miss seeing you and Pawpaw together; and I know he misses you dearly.

We're still doing our best to hold everything together and taking care of Pawpaw and the rest of the family as well. We sure wish you were still here. YOU were the glue that kept us together.

You now have a lil one that's just a couple of days old that's carrying on your name. I can only hope she will turn into the lady and family inspiration that you have been for all of us. I know you are watching over her and all of us as well.

I love you, forever and always, Bodie

Mawmaw, it's been two long years since you have had your wings. I miss you as much now as I did the day you left. Still miss your voice, stories and most of all miss seeing you with Pawpaw.

We're all doing well and still trying to take care of Pawpaw. You were the glue that held our family together.

You now have a new great great granddaughter that has your name to carry on. I can only hope that she will be the lady that you were. I know you are watching over her and all of us.

We all miss you and love you. Take care. I love you, Bodie Mawmaw. It's hard to believe it's been three years since you've been gone. Some days it seems like you just left us.

I still miss your stories. Seeing you and Pawpaw together and hearing how proud you are of me.

We're all doing ok for the most part. We're still trying to take care of one another. It's not as easy of a job as you'd think it would be.

Keep watching over us and try to keep us in line. We love you and miss you daily.

I love you very much. Until we meet again. Take care. Bodie

Mawmaw, hard to believe that it's been four years since you have been gone. In some ways, it seems like yesterday and in others, it seems like it's been forever. We still really miss you and your stories and think about you daily. The time really doesn't seem to heal the wound of losing you.

*I love you very much and miss you even more. Take Care, I love you.

Mawmaw, I can't believe it's been 5 long years since you were called back early to your heavenly home. It seems like yesterday in some ways and so long ago in others. We still miss you greatly and find peace in knowing that you are watching over us.

I love you and miss you greatly. Take Care, I love you lots. Bodie Mawmaw. It's so hard to believe it's been 6 years since you left us. Seems just like yesterday in some ways yet so long-ago other times. The family is still doing good overall, and we still miss you every day. Keep watching over us and protecting us.

*I love you Mawmaw and miss you greatly. Take care.
