

Imogene Cates

May 26, 1937 - December 18, 2019

Imogene Harlan Cates, 82 went home to be with her Lord and Savior on December 18, 2019. She was born in Corbet, Texas to Sam A. and Minnie Lee Harlan on May 26, 1937.

She met and married Jerald D. Cates, Sr. She worked as a seamstress at Hagar Slacks. She loved the Texas Rangers and Dallas Cowboys. She was very involved in Little League Baseball as her sons played ball. She was active in her Baptist Church as secretary, and writing cards of encouragement, birthdays and condolences. Everything she did was for the glory for God she was not ashamed to tell you about her Jesus.

To greet her at the Pearly Gates are her husband, JD Cates Sr.; son, Dean Cates, Jr., her parents and sister Lee Cliver; grandson-in-law Jose Alejandro. She is survived by one daughter, Linda Stepp; two sons, Joe Cates and wife JoAnne and Roy Cates and wife Brenda; daughter-in-law, Pam Cates; eight grandchildren, Shelley Alejandro, Paula Kirtley and husband Billy, Chris Cates and wife Kylie, Stephanie Cates and boyfriend Daniel Dunahoo, Jason Cates and wife Paula, Robin Barber and husband Keith, Pattie Vick, Mike Cates and wife Thresa; five great grandchildren, Daniel, Ella, Chloe, Laney and Paige along with numerous nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers make a donation to American Heart Association.

Special Thanks to the doctors and nurses at Baylor Scott & White Vascular,
