“ Miss Iva was one of my first friends in Fairfield. We decided to become prayer partners and met once a week at her home. We shared how uncomfortable it felt at first to pray our most intimate prayers where the other could hear. That soon past. I loved those mornings so much. Soon others started "dropping by" and joined us. Life got in the way, and we had to discontinue our meeting. Love you, Iva - "farewell, farewell, sweet hour of prayer." Mary McDonald

“ We will miss our Dear Iva. She was a long time friend and co-worker in WMU and other Bi-Stone Baptist Association work. She was dependable and so creative. Anything we needed done "beautiful", we could trust Iva to do it beyond all expectations. She was thoughtful and caring and always so sweet and smiling. I cherished her as a dear friend and loved her very much. It is comforting to know that our Heavenly Father has welcomed her home
