“ We are saddened at the loss of such a sweet family member. We'll always remember her as a loving mother and wife who was a joy to be around....and she could talk so fast. She used to send us pecans regularly from her trees in the fall. Just a dear, sweet woman. Heaven is just a bit more wonderful to look forward to now. We pray God will comfort each of you in this time and in the days ahead as you adjust to your precious loss.

“ I will always remember the many afternoons I sat with her shelling pecans, or cutting out doll clothes for her to sew and watching Dynasty with her. There is so many things around me that remind me of her the smell of Dove soap and powder you put on after a bath, flapjacks and gravy, meat loaf , & pecan pies which in my opinion she made the best. She is greatly missed but never forgotten. We love you grandmother !

“ Mom loved me when I was unlovable she welcomed me into her home and into her heart she taught me what a mom and a mom-in law should be she was a grat and mighty friend to me and I will love her forever I only hope I can copy her love for my son-in law and soon to be daughter-in -law I pray in heaven she always beholds the face of or father and that joy is constantly around her

“ I rejoice with Iva Mae that she is face to face with Jesus. She was my Mother's room mate at Heritage Oaks before my Mother, Gertie Bryant of Blooming Grove, died last October. My Mother and our family came to love her dearly. She couldn't communicate with us, but her precious eyes would follow us around the room and oh that wonderful smile she would give us. We ate bites of cheese together while I told her secrets. I know the grief in your heart for your loss. She is set free now and I am thankful for our time together.

“ Aunt Lee,
We were saddened to read about Iva Mae's passing. Sympathy and love to you, your family and Iva Mae's family.
I remember your telling the story about when they came to spend the night with you and Uncle Reagan. When it was time for bed, they told you they would sleep together. You were surprised and shocked because you did not know that they has gotten married.
