“ Uncle Dickey was all I ever called him. Great memories of him when I was just a kid. Loved his Corvair. He gave me one of his Air Force jackets which I wore till it was rags. Also loved his little Pierre poodle that he left at my house after he got him. Little pup cried all night. He became Grand Daddy Worleys dog soon after all though I'm sure he'd never admit it being the tough guy he was known to be. Say hello to Heaven Uncle Dickey and see you soon. Joe Earl
