“ My Uncle. A a good, decent man in a world where such is becoming rare. He was well thought of by my Mom and Dad and he always found time for his nephew on our visits when I was growing up. My mother (Rosalie) once asked him to type some of Grandma's recipes onto cards on one of our trips to Kerens. Uncle JD slipped in a few comments about his nephew into some of the recipes for my mother to find, like one calling for nuts and his suggestion to go look for me as a start. Mom never changed a single line. I still have Mama's cards with those comments. My Uncle, You will be missed, but the memories remain of a small boy sitting with his Uncles and Aunts on Grandpa's long porch watching the trains go by. Uncle JD, You were loved.
