

Jack Malone

January 1, 1924 - January 15, 2009

Billy Jack Malone, 85, passed away Thursday, January 15, 2009 in Frost, Texas. He was born January 1, 1924 in Tulia, Texas to William and Ida Malone. He served in the Navy during W.W.II and ranked as Seaman First Class. He was preceded in death by his wife Margie Malone and a grandson Mark Malone. He is survived by his son David Malone and his wife Janice of Tulia; daughter - Sharron Poindexter of Rio Rancho, New Mexico; sister - Sheila Weld of Amarillo and 3 grandchildren. Service is scheduled for Friday, January 23, 2009 at 2:00 pm at the Dallas-Ft. Worth National Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ Jack Malone

October 08, 2023 at 12:04 PM

“ Jack brightened our day with his phone calls to cousins who loved him very much! We found him about 4 yrs ago after being told he had died! I decided to look for a number in the phone book and it was Jack, very much alive! I thank God for the time we've shared together and for the constant contact he made with my mother, his 84 yr. old 1st cousin!! Jack's father, Bascom 'Bass' and mother's father, James Washington 'Wash' Malone were brothers! Heaven will never be the same with Jack near the throne!! Love, your cousins....til we meet you there!

Joan Hill & Thelma George - January 15, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear David and family,

Your Dad was a wonderful character and excitement followed wherever he ventured. He and BigUn (Carl) are surely having some laughs. What joy!

Sharon Record Weeks - January 15, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Jack Malone

January 15, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BC

“ I love you and keep on riding oldman.Have good journey

Bobby and Connie - January 15, 2009 at 12:00 AM