“ What an amazing man we have lost. Our loss is Heaven's gain. I know he has been reunited once again with his Mom, Dad, my grandparents and other's that he loved so dearly that have gone before him. He truly did touch the lives of so many people. Such a perfect combination of Strong and Powerful yet Soft and Gentle. You took care of my Mimmie for years before I was born....Please take care of her until I am reunited with her again one day soon. You will be greatly missed! You will never be forgotten. We love you!!

“ Jack was the most cheerful, positive, up-beat person that you ever met. He never met a stranger, and was greatly admired & respected by everyone who knew him or worked with him.

His family was the most important thing in the world to him, and he was very proud of his son & daughter.

Heaven has gained a great big guy with a loving & kind heart as big as he was.

Lee, my condolences to you & your children.

“ Jack was a year behind my brother, Jim, and 3 years ahead of me in high school.
Jack and his Dad were tops in every category.

“ I was a first grader the year S. S. Conner opened and Mr. Sisco was the principal. He was this huge man that would smile so sweetly, but misbehave and he had a look that would set you straight. I was only sent to his office once. We were caught running in the bathroom. I remember being terrified, but he was so sweet and kind. My funniest memory is of seeing this big man get out of his Volkswagon in the parking lot and wondering how a man so tall could get in that car. Many years later when my oldest son started school at Bayles Elementary, I was so excited to discover that Mr. Sisco was his principal. He was a wonderful man with a huge heart. Love and prayers to your family.

“ Our hearts are broken at the loss of this precious man. Jack leaves a legacy of extraordinary kindness, gentleness, and love. To say that he will be greatly missed doesn't begin to express this loss. We reflect God's character in our love, our kindness, our patience, our forgiveness, our faithfulness. Jack was all of these things. Lea and the family will be in our prayers. Love to all of you.
