“ On very rare occasions when my Granddaddy (John Grantham) and I had a cow in The Bottom where the lake is now - that he and I couldn't pen, John would call Jackie and he would get it done. Wasn't any cow too wild, too big, too fast, or too rough or too dangerous for Jackie, his rope and his horse. When he unloaded his horse that cow was as good as caught. My Granddaddy really admired his cowboying skills, and that says a whole lot. RIP Jackie.

“ I met Jackie in High School. A carload of Blooming Grove boys would come to Corsicana and hang out at the Dairy Mart. Jackie was very good looking, full of energy and had a beautiful smile. Fast forward fifty years or so and I walked into the lobby of my friend's office and noticed a handsome man talking with the staff. It took me a minute but I knew it was Jackie. We had a wonderful visit, "catching up" on mutual acquaintances. Jackie was the same as always; handsome, smiling, friendly and probably still full of mischief. Later my friend told me that Jackie was ill .
I'm sorry for your loss, the loss of a wonderful unique person.

“ I will always remember how I met Jackie and Gail. Jackie always drove down Post Oak so slow and just loved to block the road in front of me. Then I saw Jackie at The Cowboy Club and we've been friends every since. I always loved him so much.
I'm so sorry for the loss for his entire family.
