“ Jackie's death came as quite a shock this morning. She had just told me Monday that she was taking a medical leave and would be off work for a few weeks. She said she hoped the ER charges would be done correctly while she was gone. I joked with her and told her that she couldn't leave or that she would have to do them from home. She laughed and said she'd need something to do while she was off. Then I told her that we'd really miss her and that I'd be waiting at the time clock when she returned to welcome her back. The thought never occurred to me that I'd never see her again (in this world).

I will miss working with Jackie. She was so energetic and had such a positive attitude that you wanted to be around her. God's Blessings and comfort to her family.

“ Priscilla, Doug, & family,
Jackie will be missed deeply in the choir, with the youth, and all the many things she did to make other peoples lives better. Words can not express what she meant to everyone she came in contact with. Our prayers are with you constantly and we ask that our Heavenly Father wrap His loving arms around you and give you peace.

I just got home and saw the paper and was shocked over Jackie's death. I can't express how deeply I feel for you both. I also know it was so hard for her after Robert's death. She must feel like she is at home. Please know that you are in my prayers. God has a plan, as always. Cheryl Pratt

“ Jackie was my dear sweet cousin. I will miss you my darling. Jackie was as bright as the star atop a christmas tree. Jackie was happy as a puppy all the time. Jackie never showed anger or resentment. Jackie was the picture of a perfect Angel. Jackie could make a room smile even at the saddest times. Jackie was a loving mother and a tremendous caring daughter. Jackie was the best little sister anyone could ever have. This earth has lost a Gift from God. God has taken his Gift home to be with him. May we all remember the Gift of loving. She was a splendid example of Triumphant Good. God Bless Aunt Prissy, Uncle Doug, Shawn and the rest of the Walker Clan. I love you all.

“ The past few days, I have been thinking a lot about Jackie. I just found out today about her death and her son's. She had told me once that she "lost her son", but I did not realize she meant he was no longer alive. My heart is heavy with sorrow, as I knew Jackie in middle school up until college and a bit after. I hope the family, particularly her parents, know that they are in my prayers.

“ Thank you to all who have posted tributes to my sister. She was a wonderful, sweet person, and I shall miss her more than words could ever express. She was the light of my life, and I don't know what I will ever do without her. Everyday, I think about her constantly and about how much she impacted my life. I can still hear her laughing every time I do something stupid, and I can still feel her tears everytime I think of her son. I love you, Jackie, I wish you didn't have to leave us, we need you, but we understand how much you missed Robert, and we can't blame you for not sticking around just for us. I just wish it hadn't been so soon.

In remembrance, Mom and I have started a memorial website dedicated to her and Robert, and we are looking for anyone who would be interested in submitting an anecdote about either her or her son, no matter how brief. Please send correspondance to my email listed above. You can visit the site in progress at: <http://ensim.dswnet.com/~admin35/jackie/index.htm>

We plan to purchase a domain name soon once we have decided how we would like it to appear.

Thank you again to all who took the time to post a tribute to my sister. It is heartening to see how many lives she touched.

*Regards,
Shawn(ie)*

“ Jackie was a member of our "hospital family". She always was laughing. She always did whatever I asked her to do and never questioned it. She just did it.

As I look around, I realize how many lives that she touched. There are heavy hearts at Navarro Regional Hospital...lots of tears...lots of sadness, but we know that God knows best. We know that she is with her son and her life is complete. We thank God for the time that she had with us. We pray for Jackie's family. Things don't make sense to us, but it is all God's plan.

We will all miss her.

To Jackie's mother: I cannot imagine the loss of a child. May God bless and comfort you.

“ Jackie was such a bright and cheerful person. Her nails were always done and she was always on a diet that somehow included "pigs in a blanket" when I brought them to work. She was energetic and compassionate. Her presence will be greatly missed in the Emergency Room, she was a part of our family.

“ Jackie was a great person. I have learned a very important lesson of life from this, that life holds no promises not even for someone who believed in the lord so much. God has his place for everybody in heaven and she was called to be reunited with Robert. Everyday I came to work there she sat in the chair already started on the er charges she helped me with and to walk in and her not be here and to know she is never coming back is heart wrenching. I will miss her deeply and I will pray for everybody especially Pricilla. Being a mother myself I could not even imagine losing a grandchild one year and then losing my daughter a couple of years later. Life is a test and you have been put through to many. My deepest prayers are with you and your family. May God bless your every waking day.

“ for one of the dearest people i know. I was fortunate to have known her, and not only did I get to work with her we also spent time together outside of work. She was a very interesting person who could always make you laugh, when you wanted to cry and she would always be there for a friend in need no matter what she had to do. I can say she was a very strong person with all the things life has dealt her. I will end this in saying she was and will always be in my heart. annette kelley

I knew Jackie slightly from years ago. However, I knew Robert better, as I babysat his half sisters. He was a wonderful boy, therefore I know his mom was also a good lady. Just remember -- Jackie is rejoicing, although we are saddened -- she's with Robert now and they are reunited. She will be missed and I pray for you and your family/friends.
