“ Marsha and family,

I was saddened and surprised to hear of Jim's death. I didn't know him well, but he was always friendly. I know that he was good to you and treated your children as if they were his own. That alone makes him a special man. I look forward to meeting his children this weekend. God Bless you all and give you comfort in your time of sorrow.

“ I take comfort in knowing that the Lord has taken your hand and will be by your side now through these difficult times and forever. God touches our lives in many ways. Some of these ways we understand, some we don't. I feel fortunate to know Jim. Not well, but thats okay. I feel blessed to have been given the opportunity to know him at all. I feel even more blessed to have been given the opportunity to get to know the people he truly cared about. The people he REALLY LOVED. Barb, you are really Loved, by many people. May God bless you and keep you all until he chooses us to come home and once again be with Jim and enjoy his company. God chooses special people to go be with him and Jim truly earned "Special" status.

“ Cousins: I'm so sorry for the loss of your Father. (Marsha, for the loss of your husband.) My wishes to you are that you'll find comfort being near the ones you love and that smiles come to you from fond memories of times spent with Uncle Jim. I know that I can laugh out loud thinking of his unique and very "Grippe"-kind of hold-nothing-back comments, you know the ones I mean, where you want to lower your head, turn to him and quietly say "shhh." (All of us Gripes do it sometimes.) He'd likely tell you to "shush" right back. Peace and love to all of you and yours.
