“ I’ve been thinking about my father a lot lately. It’s been almost ten years since his death, and it still bothers me. It bothers me that he abandoned 4 kids from 3 marriages, that his obituary mentions none of us, and that he never afforded any of us closure in his final years. I don’t even know if there’s a headstone to visit. It is difficult to mourn a man who chose to be a ghost in my life years before he died.
