“ Many Many memories of James David at the Barn and Church - he & Johnnie sat beside each other on the same pew with me in church, played dominoes at the Barn - watched him try to play the guitar there - he always contributed to the class on Sunday mornings. The most memorable was the first time he came to Sunday class with Johnnie - he stood up and proclaimed that he was courting Johnnie - wedding shortly after that.

My husband and I (and my husband's uncle and a lady from his uncle's church)sang in a gospel group with Huff (called Redeemed) quite a few years ago. We have such wonderful memories of Huff singing bass. He had such a great voice, and a fabulous sense of humor. We just saw him and his wife at a doctor office waiting room a few weeks ago. There was Huff (in true Huff style) talking and visiting with a young man he'd never met . I think the young man was a little nervous about his dad's visit with the heart dr. Huff helped to keep the boy's mind off his worries. May God bless his wife and family.
