“ Jim was definitely one of a kind, we went from Kindergarten all the way to High School together. He was fun to be around and just a really nice guy. It was great to see him at the reunion. My thoughts and prayers go to his family, RIP Jim, you will truly be missed by all those who know you

“ Although I have not seen Jim in years and years, my heart is broken to hear the news and I will miss him dearly. Smart, funny and very outgoing! In high school, he used to come over to my parents' house to jump on the trampoline with me, but ended up sitting on the back porch with my dad talking for hours—Dad loved it! He was very proud of his silver Camaro and must have washed it everyday as it was always very shiny! All around wonderful guy and a soul lost too early. Many prayers to the family. I will always be thinking about and praying for you.

“ I feel like I grew up with Jim. (Actually, I think I did grow up with him.) He and my brother, Aaron, were great friends and Jim and I were around each other constantly (sometimes I wanted him to go home!!). I remember the hours of jumping on the trampoline, of talking and of laughter that can only be described as love, such as one has with a sibling.

One holiday he was spending with our family and brought my mom a Christmas ornament. I believe he thought it said something Happy Holiday-ish, only it actually said "Baby's first Christmas". She loved it and put it on the tree. By the way, Jim was about 22 when that happened.

Jim would call to talk to Aaron and if my mom or I answered the phone, Jim would talk with us for 20 minutes instead of talking to Aaron. He was a funny, sweet and loving person. I cherish my memories of him.

I am heartbroken to hear that the son of my dear friend of over 50 years has passed away. I don't remember Jim as an adult, but I have fond memories of him as a very young child. Leila brought her boys to my house on many occasions to visits with my little girl, Denise. The prayers will never stop for my so loved Brown family.

“ I was saddened to learn of Jim's passing. Jim was a good guy, and extremely bright - a fact he was happy to share back in the day. I enjoyed catching up with him at our 30 year reunion a couple of year ago. Prayers for his family and friends. I know he will be missed. Rest in peace.

Sincerely,
Ronnie Cepak
