

James Ryno

June 26, 1930 - May 12, 2009

James Ryno passed away May 12, 2009 at Baylor Hospital in Dallas. He was born June 26, 1930 in Aquilla Texas. He is preceded in death by parents D.A. Ryno and Ola Faye Armstrong Ryno. James "Jim" was a loving son, husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather- better known by family as Gran-Gran. Jim's humor, strength and support will greatly be missed by his family. Jim proudly served in the United States Army as a surgical technician. Jim worked with Chevrolet and Ford for many years and owned Ryno's Auto Repair in Corsicana. He was raised to a Master Mason on December 15, 1952 at Blooming Grove Texas Lodge 497 and took great pride in being a Mason. He was very active in the community both Corsicana and Blooming Grove. Also served on the city council in Blooming Grove . He is survived by his wife Mary E. Lane Ryno of Blooming Grove; daughter Gail Ryno of Frisco; son Craig Ryno and wife Rhonda of Waxahachie; grandchildren Carol, Lisa, Michelle, Jamie and Blake and several great grandchildren. Also, by his brother Hershel and sister Velma and several wonderful brother and sister in laws. Visitation will be 6-8pm Thursday May 14, 2009 at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. Services will be 2pm Friday May 15, 2009 at Griffin-Roughton Chapel with Bro. Grady Cashion officiating. Burial will follow at Dresden Cemetery. Pallbearers and honorary pallbearers will be grandsons and nephews.

I was so sorry to here about Mr. Ryno. It was really a shock. He was a wounderful man. He let me buy my Daddy's gun back after he had it since my Dad was about 17 years old. I would have never known where the gun was if it wasn't for him.Mary you were always so nice to me to. God Bless and keep you safe. I know you must miss him very much. Love Peggy Jordan

“ Mr. Ryno was a good business man and friend. I absolutely at a young age loved and adored him and his wife. I knew they were christians as they were the most vibrant couple together. I was young in the day age 18 and Mary face to face you would know me however it has been years since I have seen you but I always lovead the 2 of you because I was just getting started in life and you believed in me and trusted me and gave me a chance when noone else did. I remember days of sitting at the shop talking about life and I always commented you on your hair makeup jewelry and clothes ;o) I have missed your smiling faces over the years but I will see you together on the other side. I will be praying for you Mary. You 2 were always together and I know it will be difficult without your husband but it will not be long and everyone will be together. May all your peace and comfort and voids be filled with GOD Family and your closest friends. GOD BLESS YOU.. My heart is broken for you and I will truly be praying. Much Love Vicki
