“ And therefore the Lord earnestly waits expecting, looking, and longing to be gracious to you; and therefore He lifts Himself up, that He may have mercy on you and show loving-kindness to you.

?you will weep no more.

He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry; when He hears it, He will answer you.

And though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of afflictions, yet your Teacher will not hide Himself any more, but your eyes will constantly behold your Teacher.

And your ears will hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way; walk in it, when you turn to the right hand and when you turn to the left.

You shall have a song as in the night when a holy feast is kept, and gladness of heart as when one marches in procession with a flute to go to the temple on the mountain of the Lord, to the Rock of Israel.

“ Hi Billie, We are thinking of you and your family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. James always had a smile on his face when the two of you would fly up and down the street many years ago, and I'm sure that smile is still shining through and he is watching over you.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your dear husband, and father to your daughter. I am a distant Sherrell cousin to James. I know he was a decent and kind person and that he was a family man. He owned his own business and was hard working and very handsome. He also loved the Lord, and he is with him today in paradise and free from all his pain and suffering. You will see him again and be with him in a far better place someday. My condolences to your family.

“ A long time friend of Billie and James, I taught their daughter, and thoroughly enjoyed each of them in varying capacities. James was a good father, provider, and example of perservance. I know that those remaining will grieve over his passing, and that includes me. James was a fine citizen of this community, no mistake about that. He was a great mechanic who kept my vehicles going and was a pleasant person to deal with as well as honest, in a world full of wanna-bes. They were a great pair, and I can feel her pain.

“ James was a kind-hearted, eager to please man with a pleasing personality. Mechanically, he always plowed directly into my car problem with professional skill and I never had to wait long for results.

We talked often of business matters and personal items, and he never displayed malice about things that ordinarily would rile people up. He took life as it came and mastered the problems one at a time. He was not physically as strong as he would like to have been, but continued on to the end like the warrior that he was. I will miss him dearly.

“ I got to know James when I was working for Auto Zone. I will never forget his laugh and with his play with words. I would spend many lunch hours at his shop. Both of us sneaking snacks to he and Billie's dogs. But, James always putting the blame on me alone, never him. Billie let me know if you need anything. Just give me a call.
James, may God Bless you and I am glad I could call you my friend
