“ *Dear parents of James,
My sincere condolences on the loss of your son.
I wish to share comfort from the Bible.
Jesus well knew the Bible statement:" Time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all"[Ecclesiastes 9:11]. He knew that sometimes bad things just happen.
The wonderful future resurrection hope is the promise found at John 5:28,29.
Revelation 21:3,4 states that death will be no more. and pain will be no more, the former things will have passed away.
Our Creator, Jehovah God, by means of his son Jesus, is going to bring about these wonderful changes.
I hope as you read these texts in your Bible they will be of comfort to you.
There is much Bible-based comfort to be found on the website [www.
jw.org](http://www.jw.org)

“ James was a handsome, friendly, sensitive, philosophical, minimalist genius whom I so enjoyed visiting. He had an unusual attitude and view of the world, because he attended school at Riff Valley Academy in Africa while his parents were missionaries. He traveled the world alone and with small groups, studying the people and customs of different countries. He loved being with people one-on-one. Our loss of James is overwhelming because he was so special to us and our son, Lowell; however, we must be happy for him because he is now with Jesus where we will see him again one day.
