“ You were always there for me, Dad

*When I was little you couldn't wait to come home to see me You'd bounce me on your knees and tell me how much you loved me
I'd sneak out of bed and cuddle up in your lap while you watched TV*

*I tried hard to be the son you never had Handing you tools as you worked in the driveway
And taking auto mechanics in school so you'd be proud of me
But you just wanted me to be your little girl*

You fixed my first car....and my last car, so I would be safe on the road

But you also showed me how to fix my own flats just in case I was alone

*Every time I called, you dropped everything to be there for me
After I had children of my own,
You were always there for them, too*

I miss you so much and I will always love you,

Judy

“ *Mr. and Mrs. have always been the sweetest people. I would love seeing Mr. Warren riding down the dirt road to my Nanny's House on his horse. He would always let me jump right on the horse with him and ride up and down the road a few times for me! He was a great man! I am very sorry Mrs. Warren for your loss. “ Our deepest sympathy for the Warren family in the loss of James. He was a good, kind and funny man. He taught me a few things about hay bailing, cows, and how to make something work from a lot of junk. I will always remember the times I spent with him.

*Home at last
Oh Master, walk with me today.
In hope that I will find my way.
When moments of this world close in ,
My saddened soul is weak with sin
Dear Master take my hand in thine and Let my will to thee consign.
In joyous rapture I will sing my gratitude
To Christ the King.
For in this world of gloom and woe, in Wisdom, faith and trust we grow;
Then by our side you shall remain
To lead us on through joy and pain.
Then someday when my life is through,
In Paradise I, love with you,
And all who,ve loved you in the past
Will share your heavenly home at last.
Rest in peace James. We send this poem in sincere compassion and love to you all . Blanche and Tanya Mote*

*No words can express just how much a part of one's life a person is and will always be. James was a good man --a shining example of kindness, caring, loving, and wit. He was one of the most easy-going individuals I have had the good fortune to know. There were 10 brothers and sisters in our family; James was my brother-in-law, one of four. He will be sorely missed.
Our heartfelt condolences go to our sister, Audrey and family. It is a sad occasion and our hearts go out to Audrey and family during this difficult and stressful time. James is now at peace and we will reflect on the fondest of memories stored away in our hearts over the years. Our thoughts and prayers will be with you. Love you, sis -- Nancy*

We met James and Audrey after we moved to Richland in 1999. I'm proud to have called them both friends. They are both the most kind and helpful people. James will be missed by many. I only wish that I would have stopped by for a visit more often after we moved away. James is at rest now and we have the family in our prayers.
