“ We are so sorry for your loss. We pray God to carry and comfort you through this time. The loss of a child, grandchild, brother, well there is no words to express what you go through. We do know that God is the only way to make it each day. Keep your eyes on Him and he will give you peace. You all will continue to be in our prayers.

“ There will come a day when the tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance...and your heart will begin healing itself...and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy...and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome the tears of remembrance...as a sun shower of the soul...a turning of the tide...a promise of peace. There will come a day when you will...risk loving...go on believing...and treasure the tears of remembrance. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.

“ Although we didn't get to know each other, play or grow up together, I will always remember you as being my baby Brother. I feel better knowing you are in a better place in Heaven. I know the angels are taking care of you. Someday we will see each other again. I love you.
