

Jeanne Maust

January 4, 1974 - December 21, 2025

The world lost some of its sparkle on December 21, 2025, with the passing of Jeanne Marie Maust. She was deeply loved by many. Jeanne had a larger-than-life personality.

Jeanne Marie Maust was born January 4th, 1974, in Pasadena, TX, to Penney Gibson.

Growing up, Jeanne loved spending time with family; she had a special relationship with her grandmother, whom she lovingly referred to as "Mother." She also loved dancing, spending time with her pets, and had a deep love of fashion that started with a red pair of boots.

As a young adult, she spent a lot of time working in the family's dog grooming shop, run by her mother and grandmother. After having her three children, she decided she wanted a new career; she always felt the calling to help those in need and became a nurse. While in nursing school, she met a woman who would become her best friend in life, Amanda McCants. She graduated LVN in December of 2003 and became an RN in May 2006. She continued working as a nurse in home health, eventually becoming a DON. She decided to go back to the hospital system, becoming a charge nurse, an OA, and worked on several committees before retiring in 2025. To follow her love of travel. She started a new chapter in her life by becoming a travel agent in 2024 and moving to Corsicana, TX.

One of her greatest joys in life was being a grandmother to her grandchildren. Celebrating life's little moments and all of the milestones that came with it by throwing the most lavish parties for the people she loved. When she wasn't throwing parties, she was planning the next adventure with the people she loved no matter how small the trip. Her fiery passion for life was reflected in her dreams; she wasn't afraid to chase them.

Jeanne was preceded in death by her grandmother, Norma Jean Tait “Mother”; Stepfather, Robert Pierson “Skip”; and Aunt, Connie Ortiz.

She leaves behind her husband, Michael Maust “Red”; daughters, Shelby Walker(Justin), Lauren Bailey(Mason); son, Joseph Bailey “Joe”(Rachel); grandchildren, Joseph Alton Bailey II, Riley Bailey, Henry Earl Bailey, Ezra Amerine, Sophie Miller, Hunter Bailey; her mother, Penney Gibson; Aunt, Linda Thomas; Uncle, Gibert Ortiz; best friend “life wife”, Amanda McCants; and her corgis, Dolly and Elvis. Jeanne also leaves behind numerous family members, friends, and coworkers.

Jeanne was a courageous woman who went through life fearlessly. Basic was never in Jeanne's vocabulary; her unwavering vigor shone in everything she did. She was truly a stunning woman on the inside and out. Words will never begin to describe how wonderful a woman she was. Jeanne left a little bit of sparkle in our hearts.

“ I had come to love Jeanne as part of our family with all of holidays we were together to celebrate. She was happy all the time and she shared her contagious love and happiness to all of her grandchildren abundantly. Everyone who knew her will miss her terribly, but if you have faith in Jesus Christ, you know you will see her sweet smile again beyond the veil. She will be looking over her loved ones with a quiet whisper, feeling a warm feeling on your shoulder and an angelic kiss to all of her sleeping babies. Take your time to a just and pray for her strength to help you through. Love all you guys and gals very much, my prayers were will be with you all.
