“ We are so sorry to hear about the loss of Jeff. We loved him and remember him all through his childhood and young adult years. Although we have not seen him in a few years he has always been in our hearts. He was always so funny and full of life. He and made something of his life and for that we were always be proud of his accomplishments. We went through the photo albums yesterday and thought about all the good times. Why he did this is a mystery to us and we will always wonder why. Now our thoughts and prayers go out to his wife and sons. This was just a tragic accident that should have never happened. Although we have not been there in your lives that much, just remember we do care and love you and will be there if you need us for you are part of our family.

“ Melisa and family,

I am so sorry to hear about Mr. Smith. I have gotten to know him over the last few yrs being in and out of the school so much. He was such a funny person. He made me laugh. He will be missed. I pray that God will bring you all peace and comfort during this time. Lean on Him and He will bring you through it. Let your family and friends be a source of comfort for you also. You will be in our prayers.

“ Malisa and the boys,

I am so in shock over this. Words cannot explain what I want to say. Jeff always brought laughter wherever he went. Never without an opinion or point of view. I can't help but wish I was a better friend or had the right words to say to make him feel better. I am soooooo sorry this happened. If you need a shoulder or an ear don't hesitate to call. He will be greatly missed.

“ Malisa and boys, I was in disbelief when I heard about Jeff. I am deeply sorry and he will definitely be missed. He was always cracking jokes with me and there was never a dull moment with him around. Our school will never be the same. We often wonder why things like this happen, just trust the Lord and He will get you through this.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, and he shall direct your paths. Prov.3:5-6

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of Jeff Smith's departure. He was truly a wonderful and uplifting man, and an excellent educator. Any time we saw him, no matter where, he took the time to stop and say hello to my son and offer a quick kind word to me and my family. He was the type of person that brought a little laughter into your day, even if you were having a bad one. My son, who had the privileged of having Mr. Smith in first grade, has been deeply upset that he has passed, and I found myself quite upset as well to know that someone who brought life and laughter to so many will no longer be able to do so here on earth. He will be missed by many, many people.

“ Malisa when I heard about this in Friday my heart fell out of my chest. I was like it must be somebody else cause I was just talking to him at the game last night. Just to let you know that I will miss seeing his face at the school functions, to me he was a very swet guy and I personally will miss hearing his voice and his wave when he saw me. Be strong and lean on GOD for he is the only one that can get you and the boys through this. My prayers and love are with you and the boys.
