“ To all the Sutton family, my thoughts, and prayers are with you today, and in the days ahead. I did not ever meet Mr. Sutton, but heard some wonderful things about him. I have been blessed to know his daughter Marla Foster for several years. I told Marla on Saturday after hearing about her fathers passing, that he is now in heaven, and having a great big reunion with those who have gone before him. He is happy and well, and best of all with our Lord! Now is the task for those that are left here on this earth to carry on with his loving memories,and to love one another like we have never done before. God's speed to Mr. Sutton, and to the family, God's love. You all will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Marla,

Know that God will give you more than you can handle... Of course, this is hard to see when you are grieving over someone so close and so obvious to us that you cared about. But it is when we are at wits end when he shows up the best! The lost of someone in the physical only means joy in the spirit! A better life, better time, a better place!! We love you and will continue to keep in our prayers!!! Love you too much!!!

“ Marla,
Charles & I are sorry to hear of your father passing. Even though I had only met your father one time at your wedding, I knew that he loved you very much. Keep his memory alive in you and in your heart. As time passes, you will find yourself thinking about him and what made him such a terrific father.
