

Jim Roy Brown

February 29, 1936 - February 27, 2017

Jim Roy Brown passed away February 27, 2017, just shy of his 81st birthday, at Twilight Nursing Home following a long illness. He was born at Cryer Creek, Texas on February 29, 1936 to parents Fate and Cleo Brown. Being a leap-year baby, he often joked, well into his 70's, of being just a teenager. He was married to Joyce Deaton Brown for 29 years.

Jim Roy was retired from Chattanooga Glass and Anchor Glass after 26 years of employment. In his retirement, he owned and operated a tree service for many years. He was an avid outdoors man, enjoying hunting, fishing, and camping. He enjoyed traveling and spending time with family and friends. He was a member of First Baptist Church in Corsicana.

Everyone who knew Jim Roy has a special memory of him whether it be about his hard work, hunting, fishing, his humor, or his countless acts of love, kindness, and generosity. He will be greatly missed.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and brother, George Brown.

Survivors include his wife, Joyce; son, Gary Brown; daughter, Becky Brown; and blended family of Steve Deaton and wife Bea, Joe Deaton, and Nancy Chew and husband Coleman; brothers, Bobby Don Brown, Terry Brown, and Danny Brown; grandchildren Jason Graham, Paige Ogilvie, Adam Brown, Jason Jock, Allison Syltie, Seth Deaton, and Trevor Deaton; great-grandchildren Olivia Jock, Declan Jock, Zakk Deaton, and Nora Syltie; along with a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. His special four-legged friends were Rambo and Lulu.

A family visitation will be held at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home from 6 to 8 pm, Wednesday, March 1, 2017. A graveside service will be held at 10:30 am Thursday, March 2nd at Cryer Creek Cemetery with Pastor Rick Lamb officiating. Serving as pallbearers are Jason Graham, Alan Brown, Jessie Starkey, Joe Deaton, Trent Parker, and Adam Brown. Honorary pallbearers include Coleman Chew, Ernest Kauffman, Harold Lily, Ronald Lynch, Larry Farish, Bubba Bass, Hall Griffin and Steve Deaton.
