Jimmie Ruth Childers, born December 31, 1949, in Johntown, Texas passed away March 23, 2026, in Streetman, Texas.

Jimmie was preceded in death by her husband William D. Hutchison, parents Jim and Gladys Childers, brothers Leon Childers and Pat Childers, sister Susie Schreiber, nephews Richard Wielkens, Jackie Childers, Wayne Childers and Shannon Moring. She is survived by her sisters JoAnn Mayes, Linda Moring and Elderine Caballero, sisters-in-law's Doris Childers and Beverly Childers and many nieces and nephews.

She wasn't someone you could ignore - she didn't try to be, she just was. Tough, independent, and unapologetically herself, she lived life on her own terms and said exactly what she felt. No filter, no pretense - just honesty, courage, and a spirit that couldn't be dimmed. She was feisty, real and unforgettable. The kind of person who filled a room without even trying - not because she demanded attention, but because her presence was simply that strong. At her core was love. She was deeply dedicated and fiercely protective of her family. If you were hers, you knew it. She loved her dogs with all her heart and cherished her nieces and nephews as if they were her own, loving them with the same fierce devotion. She leaves behind a space that can't be filled - but also a strength and spark in all of us who knew her. Bold, honest, and full of life - that's how she'll always be remembered.
