“ We fell in love in High School and his father and my mother felt we were too young to be so serious they forbid us to see each other. Jimmy went off to the military after calling me and asking if I was happy. A promise he made secretly with me after our forced break up.

When the time came that he was thinking about marriage I did not want to ruin his life, so I told him I was happy. Darlene invited me to the wedding, and I came with my son and a friend who I paid to pretend to be my husband. Jimmy was the best thing that ever happened to me and his promise to make sure I was happy is what keeps me going always. He was honest to a fault, very kindhearted to all and a very good dancer.

You all are the luckiest family to have had him in your life. Especially Pam she adored Jimmy from head cause he was a great brother. He told me one time that if Pam wasn't his sister he marry her. Sorry for your loss and mine. He was everything to all of us and my first love.

Many blessings to your family.

“ I have been blessed to have Jimmy, my brother, in my life for 73 years. I can't imagine life without him and neither can our family. He is the most kind, caring, loving person I know and he will be missed by everyone one of us that has been touched by his life and his heart. I know his soul is in heaven with our parents and all the dogs Jimmy has had and so dearly loved. You are so missed already, baby. We love you so very much.
